CITY OF WASHINGTON ANIMAL ORDINANCE

Your pet is not allowed to run at large in the cemetery and must be on a leash, and if your pet defecates in the cemetery, it must be immediately removed – See Below.

§91.01 RUNNING AT LARGE

No domestic animal, including dogs, cats, horses, mules, cattle, sheep or swine or domestic fowl of the species of geese, ducks, turkeys, hens or barn fowls, guinea fowls, or peacocks shall be suffered, allowed, or permitted to run at large within the limits of the city. Any animal or fowl found upon any public street, sidewalk, alley, parkway or any unenclosed place shall be deemed to be running-at-large unless such animal or fowl is firmly held on a leash or is in an enclosed vehicle or is on the property of the owner of the animal. The owner or keeper of any such domestic animal or fowl who shall allow or permit the same to run at large within the city shall be guilty of a separate violation for each and every animal or fowl so suffered to run at large.

§91.10 ANIMAL DEFECATION

Removal of dog and other animal defecation from public and private properties. An owner or other person having custody of any dog or any other animal shall not permit said dog or any other animal to defecate on any school ground, public street, alley, sidewalk, tree, bank, park, or any other public grounds, or any private property within the city, other than the premises of the owner or person having custody of said dog or other animal, unless said defecation is removed immediately and without delay.

If you witness this happening in the cemetery, please contact the Police Department non-emergency number at 444-2313.
