Item A
Public Hearing:
Williams Subdivision
Preliminary Plat
Request at 501
School Street

Acting Chairman Milot introduced Planning and Zoning Director Jon Oliphant to share details regarding the Williams Subdivision Preliminary Plat at 501 School Street. Mr. Oliphant shared that the first step in this process was the approval of a private street, the second step was the rezoning of the property and this is the third step. They are proposing to subdivide the property into twelve single family lots. Mr. Oliphant noted that this does meet all subdivision regulations and all lots except for the current house and one other property will be serviced by the new street.

Harry Williams was in attendance and shared that he had nothing additional to provide.

Public Comments: none were provided.

Commissioner Reeder moved and Commissioner Williams seconded to approve.

Commissioner comments: Commissioner Scott clarified that this will now go to City Council for approval and Mr. Oliphant confirmed.

On roll call the vote was:

Ayes: 7 Milot, Reeder, Rodriguez, Scott and Williams

Nays: 0

Motion carried.

Old Business Mr. Oliphant shared that he has received one item for consideration for the next Planning and Zoning Commission meeting.

Commissioner/Staff Comments None was provided.

Adjournment At 6:37 p.m. Commissioner Williams moved and Commissioner Reeder seconded to adjourn. Motion carried unanimously by voice vote.

Valeri L. Brod, City Clerk
